HENRY A. KISSINGER

October 8, 1981

Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter of September 29 concerning clearance of items for my memoirs.

This is to let you know that all of the deletions requested in paragraph (a) of your letter are being made in the materials I sent you for clearance.

With respect to the tentative decisions you conveyed in paragraphs (b) and (c), my office has since been in touch with Mr. Fitzwater and his staff to provide the contextual material, as you requested. The final recommendations of your agency on items listed in those paragraphs have now been sent to me and I am accepting all of the requested changes.

I am very grateful for your prompt assistance and that of your staff in this matter.

Warm regards,

A handwritten signature, likely of Henry A. Kissinger, consisting of a stylized "H" followed by a long horizontal line.

The Honorable
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.
